By Eric T. Olson : What Are We?: A Study in Personal Ontology (Philosophy of Mind) time time is what we use a clock to measure information about time tells us the durations of events when they occur and which events happen before which others the main divisions of philosophy are outlined and discussed What Are We?: A Study in Personal Ontology (Philosophy of Mind):

From the time of Locke discussions of personal identity have often ignored the question of our basic metaphysical nature whether we human people are biological organisms spatial or temporal parts of organisms bundles of perceptions or what have you The result of this neglect has been centuries of wild proposals and clashing intuitions What Are We is the first general study of this important question It begins by explaining what the question means
