Belief, Bodies, and Being: Feminist Reflections on Embodiment:

In Belief Bodies and Being twelve distinguished contributors present diverse and illuminating viewpoints on feminist issues of embodiment materialism and agency from feminist and postmodernist philosophical perspectives. Beginning by positing non traditional ways of approaching ontological concerns through the acknowledgement of agential realities and the usage of an ontology of tropes the volume concludes by addressing highly specific culturally constituted types. These essays range from a discussion of the classical figure of Diotima to the contemporary work of Judith Butler from reflections on Niels Bohr's philosophy physics to reflections on monstrous bodies. The authors reflect on the multiplicity of bodies which
